Yes No

Campaign to Win is an advanced leadership training program. Priority will be given to active members. An applicant should have served in some Association leadership capacity and have plans for future leadership roles in the Association.

Please understand that, by agreeing to participate in this intensive three-day training program, you commit yourself to attend all sessions. In addition, you agree that during the 2009-2010 fiscal year (September 1, 2009 - August 31, 2010), you will not be a candidate for elected office in NEA or any state or local affiliate that is subject to the provisions of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act ("LMRDA"). The LMRDA covers labor organizations that have private sector members and that represent such members in dealings with their employers regarding grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours, or other terms and conditions of employment. See attached.
