

Fair & Poor Condition | Evidence on the Need to Improve Public School Facilities in America for All Students

$ 197
billion

total dollars needed for repairs, renovations, and modernizations to bring onsite public school buildings up to a good overall condition

- or -

$ 4.5
million per school across all public schools, 24 percent had permanent buildings in fair or poor condition

one-in-four

NCES Survey Results, 2012-13

31% public schools with portable (temporary) buildings

portable buildings in fair or poor condition

45%

53%

more than half of all public schools reported needing to spend money on repairs, renovations, and modernizations to bring onsite buildings up to a good overall condition

For more information, contact Tom Zembar at 202.822.7109 or TZembar@nea.org. | September 9, 2014

Education Policy & Practice Department
CENTER FOR GREAT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Great Public Schools for Every Student