FY 2012

$14,516,457

The 2014 request supports the Administration's reauthorization plan for Title I, Part A of the ESEA. Among other changes, the plan would permit States to reserve up to 5 percent of their Title I, Part A allocations to build State and local capacity to improve student achievement; create a separately funded State formula grant program for Title I Rewards (but, for 2014 only, the Education Department would provide a 2 percent State-level set-aside of funds under Title I, Part A that would be used to reward high-poverty LEAs and schools that are the highest achieving or
