Ten Lessons in Educator Leadership
GOV 1,2,3 – 221

Matthew B. Courtney
@mbc22488
Session Objectives

- Participants will learn ten lessons in leadership framed through the experience of the trainer.
- Participants will apply the ten lessons by creating an action plan to solve a problem in their school community.
Listen and Learn
Dive In – Take Risks
Develop a Prime Directive
In order for kids to love going to school, their teachers have to love going to school too!
Happy Teachers = Happy Kids
Happy Kids = Smart Kids

Does this make Teachers happy?
Build a Kitchen Cabinet
Grow Future Leaders
Be Responsive
Unite, Inspire, Lead
Empowering Educators for Success

BLUEGRASS CENTER for Teacher Quality
What if the future of STEM education is in your hands?
How does science, technology, engineering and math in the classroom translate to feeding the world’s increasing population? How are teachers influencing the next generation of scientific innovators? Find out what you can do at the STEMposium!

Saturday April 18, 2015
9am-5pm, registration at 8am
Union College | Barbourville, KY | Ramsey Center
Parking is free and unrestricted
Register at www.bgteacherquality.org

Mastering Middle-Grades Mathematics
Arm Yourself with Data
Build Relationships
Take Time Off
Never Give Up!
What is the biggest problem you want to address as a teacher leader?
What are your values?

Happy teachers make happy kids.
Happy kids are smart kids!
Does this help make teachers happy?
Who is going to help you?

Union Leaders?
Other Teachers?
School Admins?
Third-Party Organizations?
Circles of Influence
What do you need?

What resources do I need?

Technology?

Research?

Meeting space?

$$ MONEY
$$
What now?

What are my first steps?

Talk with someone who can help me?
Locate resources in my community?
Write a formal project description?
Take control of the things I can control?
Session Outcomes

• The content from this session can be used in the following ways in your current position/role:
  – make well informed decisions.
  – find advocates and advisors you can rely on.
  – stay focused, responsive to your needs, and data driven.
Please complete the evaluation for this breakout session!

Matthew B. Courtney

www.matthewbcourtney.com
courtney.matthewb@gmail.com
@mbc22488
(606) 619-9760