

Southeast Regional Leadership Conference

Little Rock, Arkansas ~ February 5-7, 2010

Our involvement in federal elections has never been more important! Now is the time to build our power so we can elect pro-public education candidates up and down the ticket in 2010. The NEA Fund has undergone a political makeover to emphasize our mission. We also have several new features that will make our fundraising program more effective, and thus more powerful, than ever before.

The NEA Fund for Children and Public Education (NEA Fund) collects voluntary contributions from Association members which are used for political purposes, including, but not limited to, making contributions to and expenditures on behalf of friends of public education who are candidates for federal office. Only U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents may contribute to the NEA Fund. Contributions to the NEA Fund are voluntary; making a contribution is neither a condition of employment nor membership in the Association, and members have the right to refuse to contribute without suffering any reprisal. A member may contribute more or less than the suggested amount, or may contribute nothing at all, without it affecting his or her membership status, rights, or benefits in NEA or any of its affiliates. Contributions to the NEA Fund are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year.
