This is who we are.

An organization of educators fighting for your student’s basic right to a great public school.

This is why we need to work together.

Join us in the fight for excellence in our public schools through smaller class sizes, access to a rigorous curriculum, fair and adequate funding, and more family and community engagement.

For more information, please visit www.nea.org/mco.