

Global Education Summit
Global Economic Crisis: Implications for Education Unions and Public Education

June 27, 2009

National Education Association, Representative Assembly
Hilton San Diego Bayfront Hotel

Noon Registration

12:30 pm Welcome and Buffet Luncheon

Introduction

John Wilson, Executive Director, National Education Association

Global Economic Crisis: Implications for Education Unions and Public Education

Bob Harris, Senior Consultant, Education International

Panel Discussion – Education Union Perspectives

Adolph Cameron, General Secretary, Jamaica Teachers' Association, JTA and General Secretary, Caribbean Union of Teachers, Jamaica

Stella Maldonado, President, Confederación de Trabajadores de la
Educación de la Republica Argentina, CTERA, Argentina

Questions & Input from Audience

Closing Remarks

Dennis Van Roekel, President, National Education Association

2:30 Adjourn