The professional teaching career continuum to which we aspire

Clark County Education Association Nevada

- Preservice at high school level
- Preservice at college level
- Novice
- Professional Development Schools
- NBCTs
- Teacher Leaders

Preservice at Mojave High School

- Principal's vision is to recruit high school students to go into teaching and return to teach at their home school
- Teachers in teacher prep received training through a model lesson and walkthrough
- Students used a rubric for viewing videos, and looked for indicators from rubric regarding learning environment and engagement

Preservice at Mojave High School

- Students explored cases in ATLAS based on the subjects they are interested in teaching in the future
- Facilitator introduced teachers to TeachingWorks Framework within ATLAS
- Facilitator shared National Board Standards and teachers based lesson plans on them

Partnership with Nevada State College

- NSC helps develop curriculum for Mojave High School
- All college of education faculty has a subscription to ATLAS

HSTA and Kamehameha Schools Partnership

- Collaboration focused on common purpose to support National Board achievement and increase the number of NBCTs in the state.
- Professional development course offering to grow capacity of teachers to be facilitators of other colleagues' learning.

HSTA and Kamehameha Schools Partnership

- Course length: November-May
- In-person meetings
- Participants view and discuss ATLAS cases
- Job-embedded learning, making connections between what they are seeing and how it can impact their practice.
- Participants earn credits for advancement and develop as teacher leaders without leaving the classroom.
