Announcement of opening for the position of

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

OEA

OHIO EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
Columbus, OH

The Ohio Education Association (OEA) is the largest labor union and largest education advocacy organization in the state of Ohio. Since 1847, the OEA has been working to make schools better and improve public education. OEA represents 122,000 educators, faculty members and support professionals who work in Ohio’s schools, colleges, and universities to help improve public education and the lives of Ohio’s children. OEA members provide professional services to benefit students, schools and the public in virtually every position needed to run Ohio’s schools.

OEA’s mission is to lead the way for the continuous improvement of public education while advocating for our members and the students we serve. We always have, and always will, work to that end. Throughout OEA’s more than 150-year history OEA members have been involved in every struggle and effort to advance the finest of America’s dreams: a quality public education for every student.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Executive Director is the Association’s chief administrative officer and management agent who leads the staff, in coordination with the OEA President, to ensure implementation of the full scope of policies, procedures, and programs approved and adopted by the OEA Board of Directors. In collaboration with the President and Officers, the Executive Director develops and manages an annual organizational budget and is accountable to the Board for the long term financial and fiscal health and sustainability of the Association. The Executive Director provides general supervision of the real property owned by the association.

Candidates should possess high emotional intelligence, excellent judgment and creativity, with a proven record of strategic leadership, which includes formulating objectives and priorities and implementing long term interests of the OEA.

VALUES MATCH

A dedicated champion for public education. Demonstrated commitment to improving the lives of working people through collective action. One who believes in and will be a strong advocate for educators owning and directing their profession. Commitment to promoting diversity, equal opportunity and social justice. A leader with an adaptive mindset in order to accommodate a rapidly changing world. Must be able to create, engage and nurture stakeholders to achieve a desired objective. An innovative, nimble leader who can learn while leading and has the flexibility to adjust to political organizational realities.
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

• Institutional Leadership – exercise inclusive and decisive leadership to advance the mission and vision of OEA in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations.

• Long Range Planning – maintain focus on the strategic goals and priorities established by systematic and strategic planning processes.

• Organizational Effectiveness and Accountability – implement the policies, services and programs of the OEA and strive for continuous improvement, utilizing data and measurement to ensure effectiveness and efficiency of OEA programs and services.

• Public Education Advocacy – champion public education in Ohio, including building collaborative relationships between OEA and external stakeholders in order to shape the highest professional standards for education policy.

• Staff Relations – serve as chief of staff and provide leadership for staff commitment to Association policy; assign staff resources to programs and projects as necessary; coordinate, direct and evaluate the work of OEA employees, delegate supervision to other management employees as appropriate; support high standards for work on behalf of OEA members; and build effective relationships with management and staff unions. Create a culture of transparency and communication throughout the organization and address internal and external challenges to protect business interests. Ensure that programs and services reflect the diversity of the region and the communities served.

• Corporate Management – advise and facilitate the development of the OEA budget; administer and monitor the budget; oversee compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; evaluate and manage risks; and ensure the proper management of all property owned and leased by the Association.

OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES FACING OEA

• OEA is recognized as the voice of education professionals advocating for high quality public education.

• OEA has strong leadership and is led by an elected president and board who set organizational direction that is designed to improve public education and the professional lives of OEA members.

• OEA is committed to building a culture of member engagement and growth in the face of the current COVID-19 crisis.

• OEA faces attacks from organized anti-union groups; however, OEA has developed effective strategies for recruiting and retaining members.

• OEA has cultivated bipartisan relationships to move pro-education legislation at the Statehouse.

• OEA will continue to strengthen its local Associations and worksite leadership in order to improve student outcomes, secure the proper teaching and learning conditions, and achieve educational opportunity and equity for all students.

• OEA has the opportunity to continue existing and new outreach with education, business and other public and private sector partners and community coalitions in support of quality public education and equitable opportunity for all students.

• OEA’s fiscal position is stable and strong, therefore the organization possesses the flexibility to leverage resources to meet changing needs.

• OEA has an opportunity to cultivate a new generation of education leaders and increase organizational relevance, building on several years of effective engagement of early career professionals.
