

NEA IDEA Resource Cadre
Education Professionals Working to Ensure All Students Succeed

The NEA IDEA Resource Cadre is a diverse group of education professionals from every region of the nation trained to provide enhanced skills and knowledge for professional development to improve academic achievement of ALL students. Presentations on the following topics are currently available:

Addressing Behavior Challenges

... knowing that challenging behaviors occur across environments, this presentation explores resources and strategies that work for all Students and promote a safe and supportive school climate

Response to Intervention

... developing a common understanding that leads to creating and sustaining an effective and efficient RtI framework to support implementation of high-quality instruction and appropriate interventions for ALL students is the focus of this presentation

Teaching Students with Autism

... synthesizing recent findings and information regarding working with students with autism, this presentation provides links to supplemental resources, as well as sharing a variety of strategies to support students who present with characteristics across the wide spectrum

Universal Design for Learning

... featuring free low and high tech tools that work for students of all abilities, participants explore the three UDL principles of Multiple Means of Representation, Multiple Means of Action and Expression, and Multiple Means of Engagement

We Are All in this Together

... focusing on collaboration, communication, consultation, and co-Teaching; teachers and paraeducators develop strategies for working together to support the needs of All students

Additional topics include: IDEA Transition services, Common Core State Standards and Students with Disabilities, The Twice Exceptional Child, Truth and Labeling, providing 504 Plans, and Positive Behavioral Intervention Strategies

Additional Information and scheduling of presentations/trainings can be arranged by contacting:

John Riley
NEA, Education Policy and Practice
1201 16th Street, NW, Suite 616
Washington, DC 20036
202.822.7301
jriley@nea.org