JOB TITLE: UniServ Organizer

DATE OF POSTING: March 3, 2020

CLOSING DATE: March 16, 2020

SALARY RANGE: $80,166 – $125,400

ESTIMATED DATE TO FILL: April 1, 2020 or after

I. General Description of the Position’s Function and Purpose:

The UniServ Organizer will lead field organizing efforts in targeted local associations and potential units within Indiana – both teacher and education support professionals. The work will be centered around the basic tools of relational organizing: one-on-one meetings, including membership asks, power analysis, charting internal relationships, leadership development (teaching and training), action and evaluation. The UniServ Organizer will also develop and implement membership recruitment and retention strategies, as well as coordinate and lead new unit organizing campaigns.

The work will be carried out in close cooperation with UniServ Directors assigned to the targeted local association and the local leaders of the targeted locals. The UniServ Organizer will report to the Director of UniServ and Organizing (North). This is a permanent Professional Staff Organization (PSO) position and is subject to the collective bargaining agreement between ISTA and PSO.

II. Responsibilities:

- Setting up, conducting and/or overseeing 10 to 15 one-on-one meetings per week.
- Conduct regular building visits for association visibility, potential member recruitment and related efforts.
- Build organizing member teams in 10 to 15 local associations or potential new units. Additional locals may be assigned over time.
- Build networks of leaders within existing and new member units.
- Utilize and carry out the tools of relational organizing: one-on-one meetings, power analysis, charting/mapping internal relationships, teaching and training, action and evaluation.
- Organize and carry out member recruitment, new unit, contract, political and/or other issue campaigns.
- Write and provide training (or train-the-trainer training) to local associations in organizing for power.
