

The National Education Association of New Mexico, NEA-NM, is seeking qualified candidates for UniServ Director for Southeast New Mexico. The NEA-NM is a member driven labor union that represents educators across New Mexico.

The ideal candidate will possess sound union organizing and project management skills, work well in a team environment as well as independently, and is able to monitor and address the needs of the members they serve. They will be creative, flexible and enjoy performing a wide variety of tasks.

The Southeast assignment covers a large geographical area with locals at varied levels and needs. The UniServ Director will need to be able to travel throughout the area and within the state.

Required Qualifications:

- Knowledge and experience of labor and/or community organizing.
- Knowledge and experience in collective bargaining.
- Knowledge and experience in grievance adjudication, including arbitration.
- Knowledge and experience in political and legislative organizing.
- Knowledge and experience in conducting leadership training programs.
- Employment or leadership experience in an advocacy organization such as national or state education unions, or other labor organizations.
- Knowledge and experience in Microsoft Office, member databases, and other technologies.
- Must have a valid drivers license, reliable vehicle, and be insured at the minimum levels required by New Mexico law.

Strong candidates will possess the following:

- Ability to actively involve and organize members around a variety of issues and has a desire to deepen a culture of organizing within the organization.
- Membership recruitment and retention.
- Ability to identify local leaders and mentor them.
- Ability to collaborate with leaders to build capacity and strong structures.
- Research/analytical skills.
- Ability to manage a high volume of work with efficiency: Has or can create a system for keeping tasks from slipping through the cracks. Able to juggle competing demands and prioritize without sacrificing quality. Plans backwards to make deadlines. Asks for help when needed.
- Acknowledges mistakes and turns them into learning opportunities.
- Strong sense of ownership and resilience: Plans ahead and finds alternative paths, when needed, to get to the finish line. Bounces back from setbacks and rejections. Holds a high bar even when things are hectic.
- Leadership skills, including the ability to think strategically, facilitate dialogue for shared results and facilitate problem solving through a variety of strategies.
- Strategist's mind: Quickly grasps the subtleties of complex issues and identifies patterns in challenges. Produces insightful, pragmatic, equitable, and sustainable ways to tackle common challenges and produce positive change. Has a successful record of taking a concept from idea to implementation.

- Vision and goal setting: Adapts to the evolving needs of the organization and thinks steps ahead to develop solutions that achieve goals in their realm.
- Attentive, empathetic leadership: Enthusiasm for meeting and engaging with people. Empathizes with the communities we serve. Able to put people at ease, especially when there are lines of difference. Listens closely to understand needs or concerns and takes steps based on that input. Gets back to people in a timely manner. Takes pride in providing clear, helpful information. Builds authentic relationships. Follows through on commitments.
- Support and facilitate integrating racial and social justice goals into the work.
- Effective communication skills and ability to build and maintain positive working relationships while working with a variety of leadership styles and perspectives.
- High standards of excellence, personal integrity, the use of sound judgment, and knowledge and sensitivity to cultural and personal differences.
- Willingness to work long hours including evenings and weekends and travel extensively to local associations within the state.
- Perform other duties and responsibilities as assigned.

Educational Requirements:

Bachelors degree required

Supervision:

The employee works under the general direction of the Executive Director and/or designee and is expected to work independently with minimum of supervision.

Pay and Benefits:

This position is a full-time bargaining unit position. Compensation is dependent on experience in accordance with the collective bargaining agreement between the National Staff Organization of New Mexico and the NEA-NM. We also offer a robust benefits package including fully paid medical, dental and vision plans, a fully paid pension plan, a 401k plan with employer contributions, and paid holidays, vacation days, personal days, and sick time.

NEA-NM IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

NEA-NM is committed to the principle of equal employment opportunity for all employees with a work environment free of discrimination and harassment. All employment decisions at NEA-NM are based on business needs, job requirements, and individual qualifications without regard to race, color, religion or belief, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, or disability.

Please email cover letter and resume with contact information to Lori Ortega at lortega@neanm.org

This job posting expires on April 26, 2024