

Title: Labor Relations Specialist
Department: Tarrytown Regional Office
Category: PSA, Category A
Salary: $133,054
Date: April 23, 2024

Job Summary

The primary responsibilities of the Labor Relations Specialist are to promote the image and vision of the New York State United Teachers (NYSUT, NEA-AFT) and the American Labor Movement, advocate on behalf of affiliates and members and the institutions in which they work, support the growth and strength of NYSUT locals, and to provide services to local affiliates of NYSUT.

Responsibilities

- Promote the image and goals of NYSUT and the American Labor Movement by representing the organization in a variety of activities involving local affiliates, and in the political and legislative arenas.
- Responsible for developing and promoting strategic approaches for affiliated locals in their interaction with their members.
- Utilizing that strategic approach, assist each local affiliate in maximizing member engagement and building the capacity of local affiliates to meet the workplace needs of their members, engage in political action, community service, social justice and professional development initiatives, and participating in regional, state and national events, programs and governance.
- Develop and maintain a hands-on relationship with local affiliates; build, or assist locals in building coalitions that further the goals of NYSUT and its members.
- Ensure that locals identify all workplace issues as opportunities for organizing and engaging members, particularly when there is no apparent legal solution.
- Engage in and support organizing of unrepresented and unaffiliated workers.
- Be committed to the process of life-long learning and demonstrate a desire for continuous professional self-improvement and knowledge attainment.
- Develop an understanding of the work life of members and assist local unions in recognizing responsibilities in both professional issues and union activities.

- Work with local affiliates in the capacity of consultant, communicator, trainer and facilitator in the resolution of local issues; gather, assimilate and distribute information.
- Conduct labor relations activities including collective bargaining, contract administration and legal advocacy.
- Other duties as assigned.

Reporting Relationships

- Accountable to NYSUT through the Regional Staff Director

Qualifications

- Excellent critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Excellent interpersonal, oral and written communications skills, including public speaking
- Pro-union and advocate for the rights of working people
- Energetic self-starter
- Ability to establish and maintain positive work relationships with supervisor, co-workers and others
- Flexible regarding work responsibilities and working conditions
- Willing to travel and work irregular hours
- Bachelor's degree or appropriate experience
- Ability to deal with electronic communications and social media

NYSUT- Who are we?

NYSUT is a statewide labor organization affiliated with more than 1,200 local unions, each representing its own members. NYSUT is affiliated with two national unions, the American Federation of Teachers (AFT) and the National Education Association (NEA). NYSUT represents nearly 700,000 people who work in, or are retired from, New York's schools, colleges, and healthcare facilities, including teachers, teacher aides and assistants, college and university faculty and professional staff, school bus drivers, custodians, secretaries, cafeteria workers, nurses, and other healthcare professionals. At NYSUT, we believe in creating a work environment free of barriers and bias, where individual outlooks and talents are respected and valued. Our organization's policy is to ensure an equal employment opportunity to all persons without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, age, sex, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other characteristic protected by the law.

Why Should You Apply?

- Competitive salary and excellent benefits, including comprehensive medical and dental insurance plans, life and long-term disability plans, and retirement plans
- Generous PTO plan
- Work-life balance
- Collaborative and supportive work environment with a diverse group of experienced professionals
- Opportunity to work in a highly respected organization, make a meaningful difference in the lives of working people, and be a proud part of the labor movement at the local, state, and national levels.

How to Apply:

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to hr@nysut.org by May 8, 2024

www.nysut.org