

NEA AE DIRECTOR

One Year Term

¡Hola, hola! I feel so incredibly humbled to introduce myself as I run to be your next NEA Aspiring Educators Director. As the daughter of immigrants and first-generation college student, I do not take this opportunity lightly. As a future social studies teacher, I dream of teaching the next generation of leaders about the true and inclusive history of our nation that is currently under attack. To me, teaching this history puts students on a pathway to viewing education as liberation, as I have had the privilege of doing so. Over the past three years of my teacher preparation program, I have had the opportunity to join our union and begin my leadership journey. At my former community college, I served as the President of our local chapter as well as the communications coordinator for our state level program. Currently, I have the honor of serving Aspiring Educators as my state Chairperson and the AE Director to the NEA Hispanic Caucus. Thank you for taking time to learn more about me!

Con cariño,
