

Bio: Zachary Sheriff is an experienced educator and a passionate advocate for equity, public education, and educator empowerment. With over a decade of classroom experience, Zachary has been a consistent voice for educators and students, serving in multiple leadership roles within his local and state associations. His commitment to shaping inclusive and forward-thinking policy has driven him to seek a position on the NEA Resolutions Committee.

He believes that the Resolutions Committee plays a critical role in reflecting the core values of the NEA and guiding our collective voice. He is committed to ensuring that our policies continue to uphold equity, justice, and the professional dignity of educators nationwide. Zachary brings a collaborative spirit, a deep understanding of educational challenges, and a strong belief in the power of member-driven governance.
