

Our Fight to Reclaim College as a Public Good for All – NEA Higher Ed Action Hand Out (Monday 2pm session)

Your hosts

Candi Churchill, NEA Organizational Specialist / cchurchill@nea.org / 771-219-4917

Enrique Farrera, President, Oregon Education Association / enrique.farrera@oregoned.org

Levin Kim, Chair, Higher Education Labor United / levin@higheredlaborunited.org / 734-834-9171

Max Page, President, Massachusetts Teachers Association / milomaximpage@gmail.com

Alec Thomson, President, National Council for Higher Education / NCHE@nea.org / (248)469-2708

Emergency Campaign to SUPPORT HIGHER EDUCATION

Make College Affordable | Defend Campus Freedom | Protect Life-Saving Research

<https://emergencycampaign.org/>

Follow on social media.

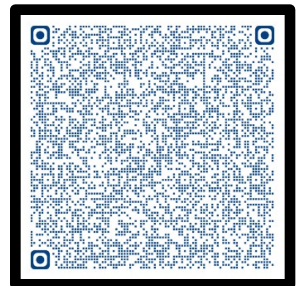

Sign the pledge. Participate in regional coalitions and convenings.

SHARE WIDELY!

HIGHER ED LABOR UNITED

Happy Hour Monday July 6th 5:30pm @ West Saloon & Kitchen (501 16th St Mall); RSVP with QR code on right. Your local can join HELU! NEA will share in the cost of your first solidarity pledge. Apply with QR code to the left.

Support Aspiring Educator

chapters in your state!

Start a chapter on your campus!

Aspiring Educator Organizer:

Michele O'Neill / moneill@nea.org

MAY DAY STRONG

<https://maydaystrong.org/> Work with community and labor unions in your area to host a “Solidarity School” around Labor Day. Align your actions and campaigns with millions of other workers. Become a May Day Strong partner:

<http://bit.ly/4eJL1Wk>

fairsharema.com, milomaximpage@gmail.com Connect with Fair Share Massachusetts, a union and community alliance that won a tax on millionaires that has brought in over $9 billion in only a few years to fund public infrastructure (public education and transportation). NEA affiliates are leading on tax justice campaigns across the U.S. Start your own tax justice campaign!

Submit a public comment by July 13 to the Office of Management and Budget about their new “Guidance for Federal Financial Assistance.” Comments need to be unique and not a “copy paste.” SHARE WIDELY!

Litigate: We need to hear about your experiences to challenge cuts and attacks that harm your work, your students, and your communities. Urgent need for stories around Department of Education grant cuts. SHARE WIDELY!

